

Bem Vindo ao Rio

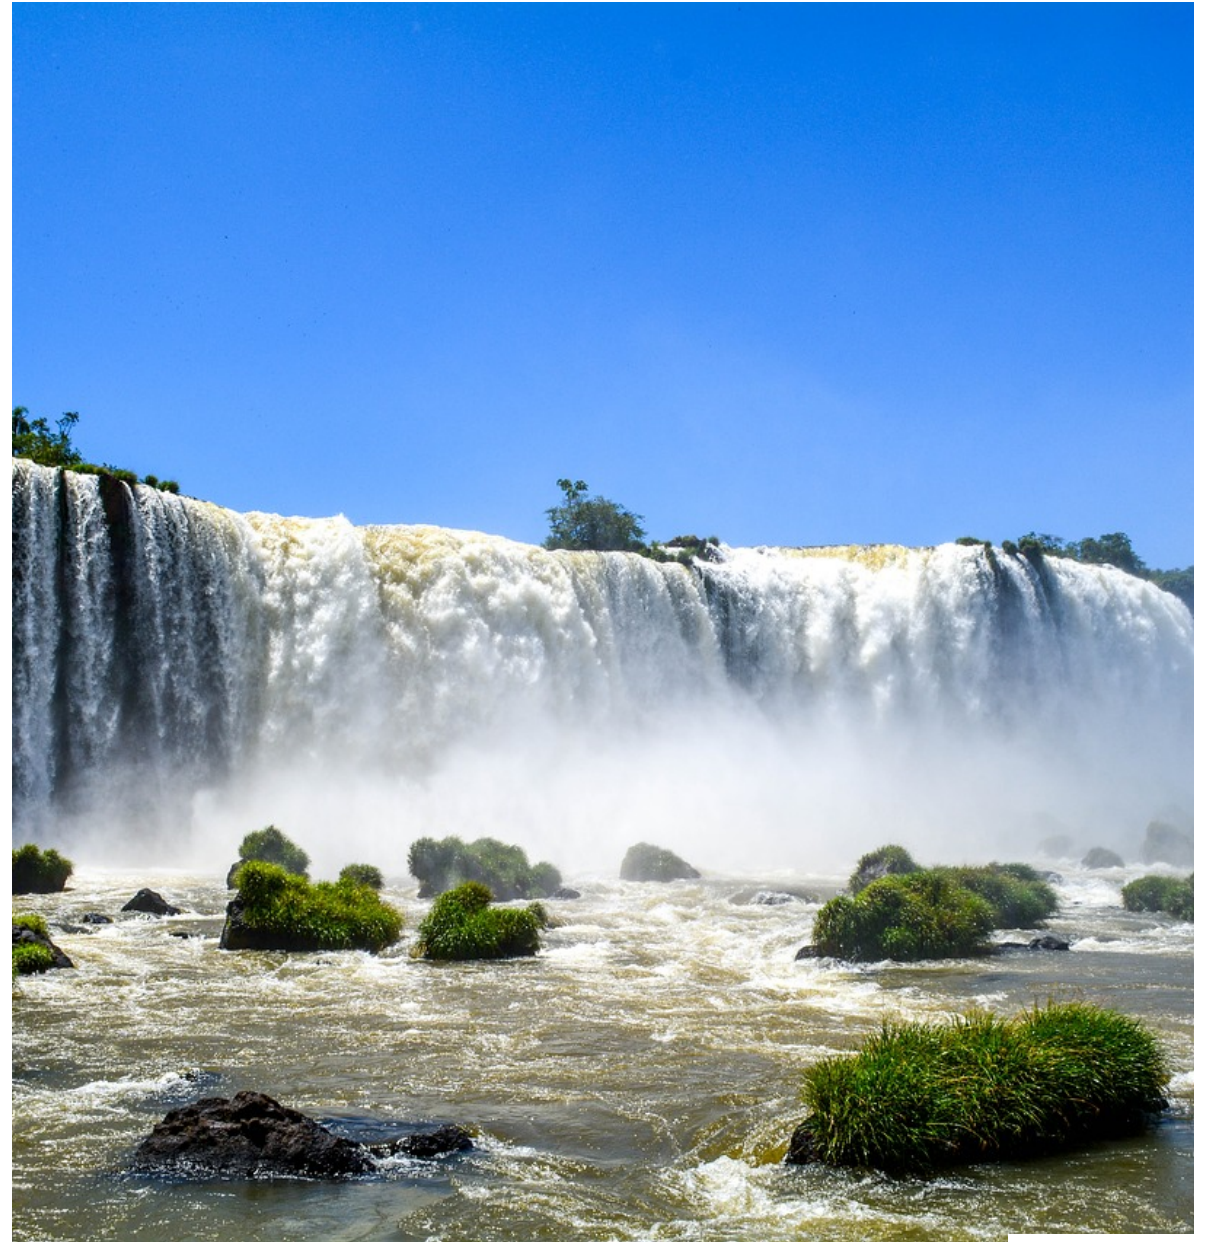

One of the most colorful cities in the world, Rio de Janeiro is an exciting city of festivals, food, art, culture, beaches, and stunning scenery. Once a Portuguese colony, Rio was the capital of Brazil for nearly two centuries. Today, it is home to Tijuca National Park, the largest urban forest in the world; two of the world's most famous beaches, Ipanema and Copacabana; and a thrilling blend of Samba, museums, galleries, shopping, churrascaria feasts, and panoramic views from atop Sugar Loaf Mountain.

One day your private city tour takes you to the Cosme Velho district to board a cog-wheel train that will whisk you through the lush tropical vegetation of Tijuca Forest to the top of Corcovado Mountain. This rounded peak rising 2,300 feet from the bay below is one of the New 7 Wonders of the World and home to the iconic statue of Christ the Redeemer. Enjoy a breathtaking 360-degree panoramic view of the city and beaches below.

Then fly to Iguassu Falls at the crossroads of Brazil, Argentina, and Paraguay. This masterpiece of nature encompasses 275 separate falls and spans almost two miles. The afternoon's private tour is dedicated to enjoying the spectacle of this 2-mile-wide torrent. With some cataracts as high as 250 feet, it's nothing short of hypnotic. The clouds of spray, the incessant roar, and the surrounding luxuriant tropical growth make this an unforgettable natural wonder. Next morning, take the Ecological Jungle Train and tour the Argentine side of Iguassu Falls with numerous walkways that wind above and under the crashing water. From the historic sights to the breathtaking landscapes, this is a dream journey!

Your six day trip for two includes

Three nights hotel in Rio

Private city tour to Corcovado Mountain

Flight from Rio to Iguassu Falls

Two nights hotel in Iguassu Falls

Private tour of both sides of Iguassu Falls

Buffet breakfast daily

All Airport Transfers

Professional travel
agent consultation

Terms and Conditions

- All packages must be booked with a minimum of 120 day's notice. All sales are final, nonrefundable but are transferable. We highly suggest you obtain travel insurance.
- Some packages are offered on selected dates only and may not be available during busy holiday periods. No blackout dates apply, however, in rare instances some destinations may not be available to book for peak season. In the event this happens, we will work with you to provide the best possible alternative.
- Trip packages are preset itineraries. If you wish to deviate from your package, your travel specialist will be happy to assist. However, please note there will be a deviation fee plus any additional cost incurred by deviating from the package.
- Award Certificates are valid for two passengers and expire two years from the date of the event. Additional passengers can be added at time of booking, travel specialist will advise extra cost.